A window looks both ways.
Oftentimes, children do not.
That's why God
made caskets and Heaven.

There are 2 sides
to every coin—except
when it comes to religion
and nationalism.

This is where the caskets reappear. But not necessarily Heaven.

Noah built the Ark.
The animals boarded 2x2.
A few dilly-dallyed behind,
hence—extinction.

I've got a secret
or 2.
Secrets can hide
in the smallest of places.

Even in the space between a man's 2 ears.
